

Letter of Commendation

OFFICER IN CHARGE
NAVAL SUPPORT ACTIVITY NORFOLK, NORTHWEST ANNEX
TAKES PLEASURE IN COMMENDING

The Men and Women of
The Order of Saint Isidore of Seville

FOR SERVICE AS SET FORTH IN THE FOLLOWING

Citation

“For outstanding performance of duties in service to humanity from August 2004 to August 2007. Your dedication to preserving the Christian tenets of unconditional brotherly love, charity to those in need, and service to your community serve as an example for all to emulate. These virtuous traits set you apart from others as compassionate citizens of the world, noble public servants to all mankind, and most importantly, Men and Women unabashedly devoted to living their lives according to the Word of God. You consistently live up to the Order’s Motto – “Bono Vince Malum = Overcome Evil with Good,” through the preservation and furtherance of Christian Chivalry, community service, and mutual support among members. Since its inception, the Men and Women of The Order of Saint Isidore of Seville have been true to their call, readily responding to those in need, and furthering the noble cause of Christian Chivalry. It is my pleasure, as my last official act in command, to recognize the Men and Women of The Order of Saint Isidore of Seville for their contributions to the betterment of mankind. Your distinctive accomplishments and impressive devotion to duty reflect great credit upon you and are in keeping with the highest traditions of The Order of Saint Isidore of Seville and the United States Naval Service.”

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Andrew J. McMnamin".

Andrew J. McMnamin
Lieutenant Commander, U. S. Navy
Officer in Charge